How the price is set

There is no agent here to manage a guide upward or to keep the evidence to themselves. What follows is the same comparable set we used to arrive at the number, so you can check the reasoning rather than take it on trust.

LOW

$1.25M

Set by the three bedroom version in this development, which settled at $1,240,000 in September 2026. This home adds a bedroom, a bathroom and a third floor.

EXPECTED

$1.30M to $1.35M

Two four bedroom townhouses nearby made $1,300,000 and $1,350,000 this year. Both are newer builds on a single garage with slightly less living area.

HIGH CONFIDENCE

HIGH

$1.45M

Roughly what an equivalent home asks through an agent, where commission and marketing come out of the price before it reaches the seller.

Why the expected range sits where it does

Two four bedroom and three bathroom townhouses in Glendalough Green made $1,350,000 and $1,300,000 this year. Both have a single garage, both are strata titled and both have a smaller living area. This home matches them on bedrooms and bathrooms on a green title lot with a double garage and internal access.

What would push it to either end

The low end applies if the market prices this as a three bedroom plus one rather than as a true four bedroom home. The high end needs two or more buyers competing on the day. Neither is in anyone's control, which is why the range is published rather than a single figure.

The commission difference is real money on both sides

A typical Western Australian agent commission is 2.5 per cent plus GST, which is about $35,750 on a $1.3M sale. In a direct transaction that cost does not exist for either party. It is the reason a direct sale can leave the buyer better off at the same net result to us.

For investors

ESTIMATED WEEKLY RENT	LIVE 3-BED, SAME COMMUNITY	GROSS YIELD AT $1.3M	PERTH VACANCY RATE
$1,200 to $1,350 4b/3ba/2g premium over the live 3-bed	$1,150/wk Currently available, October 2026	5.1% Sydney inner-ring is about 2.6%	1.7% REIWA, September 2026

At $1,275 a week against a $1,300,000 purchase, gross yield is approximately 5.1 per cent. The relevant local benchmark is the three bedroom currently available in this same community at $1,150 a week. This home has an additional bedroom, an additional bathroom and materially more floor area. Green title double garage four bedroom homes in well connected Perth inner-ring suburbs are the profile interstate buyer's agents are seeking. Here you can buy directly with no agent commission on either side.

How to make an offer

1 Inspect the property

Attend an open home or request a private inspection. Walk through at your own pace and ask us anything directly.

2 Get your finance in order

Speak to your bank or mortgage broker and have pre-approval in place before making a formal offer.

3 Engage a WA settlement agent or conveyancer

A licensed WA settlement agent prepares the offer and acceptance contract. Find one at aicwa.com.au. This is standard for all WA property transactions.

4 Submit your offer in writing

Your settlement agent will prepare a standard REIWA offer and acceptance contract. Email it directly to us. No gatekeeper, no delay and no third party managing the communication.

5 Negotiate directly with us

Owner to buyer, with no commission stake shaping the result. A typical WA agent commission is 2.5 per cent plus GST. On a $1.3M transaction that is about $35,750 which does not exist in a direct sale.
